

the ladder the lantern-lighter

Finally, at the very top, seeking the balance, suddenly a foot slips off the rung. The huge ladder tilts and it goes in the dive straight down to the ground floor. This is fulminant slapstick with one fireworks from spectacular cascades.

An irrational-great number, from the audience always accompanied by loud laughter and stagnant breath.

“I’ve never seen anything like that before!”

Right. In this way a unique appearance - presumably since decades.

A lantern lighter tries to repair a street lantern. First climb he rose directly to the lamp, but then discovered a large folding ladder of wood. Aligning and positioning the ladder is a clowns act.

If the ladder is in the right place, Joy Burger burns a fireworks at Slapstick Comedy. Spectacular cascades, balancing act and falls with the ladder, from the ladder, and over the ladder - and even between the rungs. This performance is a huge fun for all age groups. With the slogan: „he has the lamp on!“ this unusual performance celebrates at gala events, customer events, carnival events, variety and circus the biggest success. The Lantern cleaner is also an original walk-in for street festivals, home shows and trade fair events. This ladder stunt has been booked for years in training in the field occupational health and safety at a major event.

In the following interview Joyburger explains the conscious dealing with risks: „The Ladder“ as a show act provides first class entertainment for the great stage. Spectacular acrobatics, comedy and drama are a successful blend.
